

MARYVILLE DAILY FORUM
Maryville, Nodaway County, Missouri
Friday December 22, 1978

Final rites conducted for Truman E. West

Services were held Thursday afternoon at the Price Funeral Home, Maryville, for Truman E. West, Pickering, who died Monday. The Rev. Bob Webb officiated, and burial was in the Wilcox Cemetery.

Mrs. Bill Smith sang "We Are Going down the Valley" and "Beyond the Sunset." Maynard Burch sang "How Great Thou Art." Patty Mozingo was organist.

Pallbearers were Ronnie Burns, Donnie Burns, Larry Dean West, James West, Leroy West, Gale West, Todd Robison and Vincent Twaddle.

MARYVILLE DAILY FORUM
Maryville, Nodaway County, Missouri
Friday February 20, 1998

Madeline Herrington

Madeline West Herrington, 78, Maryville, died Friday, Feb. 20, 1998, at St. Francis Hospital, Maryville.

Born June 22, 1919, in Clearmont, to Marion Glen and Hazel Gates Fine, she had been a receptionist for Dr. Robert Dunshee for 23 years, before retiring.

She married Truman Earl West, Feb. 24, 1940, in Atchison, Kan., who preceded her in death. She married Howard Everett Herrington, Sept. 3, 1983, in Maryville.

A lifetime resident of the area, Mrs.

Herrington was a member of the First Baptist Church, Maryville.

She was preceded in death by her husband.

Survivors include her husband, Everett Herrington, of Maryville; three sons, Lowell Dean West of Hot Springs, Ark., Gerald M. "Jerry" West of Savannah, Mo., and Rick West of Kansas City; a daughter, Sharon Robison of Savannah; a stepson, Arthur Herrington of Kansas City; 13 grandchildren; and 14 great-grandchildren.

Visitation is currently under way at Price Funeral Home, Maryville.

Services will be held at 2 p.m., Sunday, Feb. 22, at Price Funeral Home Chapel, Maryville, with the Rev. Charles Plymiell officiating.

Burial will be in Wilcox Cemetery, Wilcox.

Memorials may be made to the St. Francis Hospital Foundation.

Arrangements are under the direction of Price Funeral Home, Maryville.

