

CLARENCE E. HOLT, 81, RETIRED FARMER, DIES

Clarence Ed Holt, 81-year-old retired farmer residing eight miles northwest of Maryville, died at 5 p. m. Sunday at the St. Francis Hospital following an illness of several months. He had been in the hospital a week.

Born Dec. 30, 1883, at Quitman, the son of the late A. J. and Sarah Catharine Shell Holt, he had resided in Colorado from 1913 to 1941, spending the rest of his life in Missouri. He was married Oct. 18, 1915, Ft. Morgan, Colo., to Mary Belle McGee, who survives. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge at Akron, Colo.

In addition to his wife of the home, he is survived by four sisters, Mrs. Tom Adams, Mrs. Ivan Cockayne and Mrs. Russell Ruhl, all of Maryville, and Mrs. James Sheridan, Quitman, and one brother, Joe Holt, Maryville.

Funeral rites will be conducted at 3:30 p. m. Tuesday at the Price Funeral Home. The Rev. C. C. Pritchard, Burlington Jct., will officiate. Burial will be in the Wilcox Cemetery. Masonic services also will be held.

In lieu of flowers the family suggests donations to the Cancer Fund.—Adv.
